

News in Brief

New 'Green Footprint' scheme from Space

Gloucester-based Space Catering Equipment has introduced a new 'green footprint' scheme to help customers save energy and reduce their environmental impact by specifying the right equipment when designing their kitchen.

Space says it will help any operator planning a new kitchen - whether starting from scratch or simply refurbishing existing facilities - to identify and build in equipment or design features that use less energy and are better for the environment.